Happy Easter

Woolgoolga Public School staff wishes all families a safe and happy Easter and an enjoyable holiday.

We look forward to seeing students return on Tuesday 21st April 2015.

ANZAC Day

This year ANZAC Day falls on Saturday of the first week back in term 2. We will be conducting a special ANZAC Day ceremony at the school on Friday 24th April. We will also be participating in the Woolgoolga RSL ANZAC Day March, to be held on April 25 commencing at 10.30am in front of Woolgoolga Post Office, and finishing with a ceremony outside the RSL. We would love to see as many of our students involved in this as possible. They will all need to be in full school uniform, including the school hat.

Cross Country

Congratulations to the students who will be representing the school at the District Cross Country in Woolgoolga on the 8th May – we wish them all well! Ribbons from our school cross country were presented today.

Don’t forget to turn clocks back 1 hour this weekend
Coffs Harbour District Netball Trials

On Monday 30\(^{th}\) March, Talisha, Laana, Jordan, Kaitlyn, Skye and Kobie attended the district netball trials in Coffs Harbour. Teams were made on the day and all students played very well.

Talisha has been selected to progress to the next level. Congratulations Talisha. Teams were made on the day. The District team will play next term on the 29\(^{th}\) April. Well done to all student’s.

PSSA Boys Cricket

On Wednesday our boys’ cricket team played Grafton in the PSSA cricket competition and had another great win!
